RETAINED RIGHTS/TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Authors retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the work.
2. Authors may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce material extracted from the work, or derivative works for the author's personal use, provided that the source and the conference copyright notice are indicated, the copies are not used in any way that implies the conference endorsement of a product or service, and the copies themselves are not offered for sale.
3. Authors may make limited distribution of all or portions of the work prior to publication if they inform the conference in advance of the nature and extent of such limited distribution.
4. Although authors are permitted to re-use all or portions of the work in other works, this does not include granting Fifth-party requests for reprinting, republishing, or other types of re-use.

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Author/Employer Rights

If you are employed and prepared the work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, the conference assumes that when you sign this form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to the transfer of copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this form as the author.
